Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	Mr Leow Ing Seng and Mr Lim Chung Yin, two of the Independent Non-Executive Directors, have served the Board for more than twelfth years as Independent Directors. The Board has decided to seek shareholders' approval to retain both of them as independent directors via a normal voting process based on the following justification: (a) The Board strongly believes that a Director's independence cannot be determined through the length of service only; (b) The Board is of the view that there are significant advantages to be gained from (i) the long serving independent Directors as they are able to perform their duty diligently and (ii) their practical experiences and understandings about the Company's business. These Directors have undergone continuous trainings as well as briefing about the Company's business; (c) The Board is of the view that they are objective in their views and participation in deliberations and decision making of the Board and the Board Committees.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.3 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Annual review will be carried out by the Nomination Committee of the Directors' independence and all Independent Non-Executive Directors are required to submit an annual declaration regarding his independence according to the criteria on independence set out in the Listing Requirements and Practice Notes of Bursa Securities.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.1

The board has in place policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Remuneration Committee takes into consideration individual performance and performance of the Company in determining the remuneration of the Directors. The Directors' fees and benefits are recommended for shareholders' approval after review by the Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors.
		The Company does have performance appraisal system and individual performance is rewarded through salary and bonus structure.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
